ELECTION RETURNS.

THE REPUBLICANS GAIN THE STATE BY 1,100 MAJORITY.

Conflicting Returns---Ohio has Gone Republican by a Small Majority---Doubtful Legislature.

THE IOWA ELECTION.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Despatches from Desmoines, Davenport, Red Oak, Northwood, Waterloo, Keokuk, Cherokee and Nevada, Iowa, report Republican gains, and that those places give Republican majorities.

MUSCATINE, Oct. 15.—Gear lacks thirty-four of a majority over the opposition in this city.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Oct. 15.—Over two thousand votes were polled in this city. The Democratic majority on the State ticket is thirty-seven. The county is doubtful.

KEOKUK, Oct. 15.—Lee county will be Democratic on the State ticket by a reduced majority. The Republicans will elect a portion of the county ticket. Jackson township gives Gear 236 majority, a gain of nearly two hundred over the vote of two years ago.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

CINCINNATI, O., October 15.—Reports from all the precincts of Hamilton county except ten, give Foster 3,500 majority; Hickenlooper 3,476 majority; Oglebee for Auditor 2,599 majority. The Republican majority on the State Senatorial ticket ranges at from 3,529 to 3,858; on representative 1,419 to 3,785. George W. Williams (colored), Republican candidate for the legislature, received the lowest Republican vote, which is 902, more than the highest Democratic vote. As for the State at large, the estimates of Foster's majority at this hour (8 A. M.) vary from 15,000 to 30,000. It is very generally conceded that the Republicans will have a clear majority in the joint session of the legislature, and the indications are that later returns will give them a majority in each house.

TOLEDO, October 15.—Returns from the city and county come in slowly, only two townships and four wards heard from. A large portion of the National vote will probably be cast for Ewing, Democrat, which will render the vote on Governor close. The Republicans claim the whole county ticket, including two Representatives. Willbridge, Republican, for the Senate, will have 500 majority in Lucas county. Foster gains 600 on the Republican vote of last year.

The above is from a Republican source, the returns being too meager to afford a definite statement of the result.

COLUMBUS, October 15.—The Legislature is claimed by both parties, with the chances largely in favor of the Republicans.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

COLUMBUS, O., October 15—10 P. M.—The Democratic committee concede the election of the Republican State ticket by a decided majority. They are also working for a majority of the House of Representatives, but still claim to have one or two majority in the Senate.

The Republican committee estimate Foster's majority to be 20,000, and claim seventy out of one hundred and fourteen representatives, which make twelve more than is necessary to pass a bill. They also claim nineteen senators, which is a majority of one.

CINCINNATI, O., October 15.—All the precincts in Hamilton county save one, show an increased Republican majority. George W. Williams (colored), Republican, leaves the highest Democrat nearly one thousand votes.

TOLEDO, Oct. 15.—Returns from 27 precincts in Lucas county, and careful estimates of the remaining 17 precincts, show a majority for Foster over Ewing of one hundred. Walbridge (Republican, for State Senator, has a majority of from 1,000 to 1,200. The Republican candidates for Representatives have majorities of five hundred to seven hundred. The entire Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from three to seven hundred.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Eighty-five polling places in Iowa give Gear (Republican), 13,948; Trimble (Democrat), 7,847; Campbell (Greenbacker), 4,416. Dungan (Prohibitionist) received only a few hundred votes. The conclusion is that the Republican candidate will probably have a good majority over all, he having gained in nearly every precinct over the vote of 1877.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—The Times has a table on the Hamilton county ticket. All the returns complete show the highest and lowest Republican majorities. County commissioner Hopkins leads the list with 4186 majority George W. Williams, colored representative, having the lowest which is 8-6.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 15.—From returns received since noon the Republicans claim to have elected twenty-one Senators or two majority.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 15.—Forest's majority over Ewing in Cuyahoga county is 4,758; over all 4,197. Balance of the State ticket averages 5,500 Republican majority. The legislature and county tickets are elected by about 5,000 Republican majority. Total vote in the county 30,401.

DESMOINES, Iowa, Oct 15.—The State Register puts the Republican majority on the State ticket at thirty thousand with a likelihood that it will reach thirty-five thousand. The Republican gain over the vote of two years ago is three thousand three hundred, they then lacking three thousand of a majority over all,

Cotton Returns.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The returns to the Department of Agriculture for October 15th, are as follows:

Cotton—Returns to this department for the month ending October 1, 1879, show the average condition for the cotton States of eighty-one, being a decline since September 1st of four. The State averages are North Carolina seventy-seven, decrease of six; South Carolina eighty-two, increase of one; Georgia seventy-seven, decrease of five; Florida eighty, decrease of five; Alabama seventy-nine, decrease of five; Mississippi eighty-five, decrease of four; Louisiana eighty, decrease of seven; Texas sixty-five, decrease of 1; Arkansas ninety-six, decrease of three; Tennessee one hundred and six, decrease of one. Compared with October, 1877, there is a decline of nine per cent. The condition then was ninety per cent. Storms of great severity have visited Louisiana and Mississippi, causing great damage. Insect injuries are not reported to any great extent, although almost universal. Their appearance was too late to do much damage. Unfavorable weather in Alabama and Georgia in September was reported. The drought in Texas has shortened the prospect of that State nearly twenty-five per cent. Arkansas and Tennessee are the only States showing an increase over the condition at this time 1879.

TOBACCO RETURNS.

The tobacco condition for October 1st has improved from that of September 1st. In nine of the large producing States it has declined in two and remained the same in one. The State averages are: Massachusetts 103, a gain of one; Connecticut 110, a gain of ten; Pennsylvania 111, a gain of 11; Maryland 98, a gain of two; Virginia 87, a gain of five; North Carolina 90, a gain of three; Tennessee 104, a gain of fourteen; Kentucky 95, a gain of nine; Indiana 99, a gain of nine; Ohio 70, a loss of four; Missouri 78, a loss of ten, while Illinois remains unchanged. Total 100; average for the States 93—a gain of six. Early planted tobacco ripened at 100, and has been harvested in good condition—showing, in general, its excellent quality. The late crops were materially damaged by the frost in Ohio, and slightly so in a few localities in Virginia and Tennessee. The decline in Missouri is ascribed to the drought.

From Memphis.

MEMPHIS, October 15.—No new cases are reported. Four deaths have occurred since last night, as follows: Louisa Bernard, colored, M. J. Loeber, Mrs. J. Holmes and Rev. J. Peres. The last named is a Jewish divine. Weather clear and warm.

Noon.—Five new cases are reported, namely: Nora Murphy, Thomas Dalton, Callie Speckerhagle, Josephine Chambers and Lon. Cross. The last two are colored. One more death, August Sweifel.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 15.—Ten cases were reported to-day. Among them C. K. Isaacs, J. P. Hastings and Mollie Thomas. Four additional deaths have occurred. Esau Terrel, colored, Wm. Robinson, J. P. McDaniel and Minnie Faley. The last named died at Buntyn station. Donations to the Howards aggregated sixty-one dollars. W. B. Winn, inspector of the National Board of Health left this afternoon with a nurse for Forest City, Arkansas. Two new cases are reported to have developed there.

FOREST CITY, Ark., Oct. 15.—Two deaths have occurred since last evening. Mrs. Mark Izard and Mrs. Lattimore. No new cases of fever have developed. Business has suspended.

The Virginia Debt Question.

RICHMOND, October 15.—During the recent discussion of debit settlement now agitating the people of Virginia. Ex-governor Kemper is alleged to have used language towards General William Mahone to which the lattter excepted. A correspondence ensued between them on the subject, and the matter of difference definitely stated, has been adjusted without resort to the Code.

A few days since a petition numerously signed by the colored people of this city, was forwarded through United States Internal Revenue Collector Bradley and J. L. Vanauken to Frederick Douglass, asking him to visit Petersburg and address them on their duty in the present State debt canvass. Douglass responded in a long letter, regretting his inability to accept the invitation in consequence of being booked for the campaign in New York. He says in his letter that he is against repudiation in every form, and most earnestly advises his people not to give support, countenance or encouragement to the re-adjusters or repudiators.

Last night a large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Ettrick's, a village near Petersburg, which was addressed by Judge W. J. Clopton and George A. Jevett, Esq., one of the candidates for the House of Delegates. Both these gentlemen are strong advocates of the settlement of the State debt on the McCulloch bill basis. The meeting did not adjourn until a late hour.

The Southern Railroads.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 15.—A meeting of the managers of the Southern rail roads was held in this city to-day to arrange a winter schedule for the running of trains. Thirty roads were represented, all in the south, except the Pennsylvania Rail Road. R. R. Bridgers, of the Wilmington & Weldon and Wilmington & Columbia and Augusta Rail Road was in the chair and W. F. Allen, of the Travelers' Official Guide, secretary. Changes were made in the night train going north from Washington to 9:05 instead of 10:15 P. M., and in the morning going south from Washington at 7 instead of 6:50. These changes to go into effect on the 9th day of November. A communication was presented from the Baltimore papers with reference to the 3:20 A. M. train north, but no action was taken. A paper relating to the national quarantine was also read, but no action was taken on it as there will be a meeting at Nashville on the 14th instant to consider that subject. The meeting adjourned to assemble in New York on the third Wednesday in April 1880.

FROM THE NORTHERN MAIL.

The Ohio Results and the Consequent Glorification.

From the Baltimore Sun.

CINCINFATI, Oct. 14.—The Republicans are full of enthusiasm to-night. Reports from all parts of the State indicate a large Republican majority. In Hamilton county returns from twenty precincts show Republican gaine sufficient, it is claimed, to insure a majority of from 1,500 to 2,000 in the county, and the election of the whole legislative ticket, not excepting even the colored brother Williams. From the State come reports of Republican gains over the election of last year, when the Republican majority was 4,000, thus making a Republican triumph almost certain. The Republicans are claiming the State by majorities ranging from 20,000 to 30,000. The Democrats, many of them, concede a Republican majority, but still insist that they have the Legislature. The Republicans are equally confident of the Legislature. Regarding this it will probably be impossible to obtain definite information to-night. It is noticeable that the Republican gains are largest in counties having already a Republican majority, and the result will be that the gain in the vote for Governor will not be so perceptibly felt in the legislative ticket, as the counties heretofore Democratic are not so likely to show Republican gains as are the others.

If, however, the majorities in but one or two counties are overcome, the result, should the present indications regarding Hamilton county be borne out, would probably be a Republican legislature and a Republican successor to Senator Thurman. Many Republicans claim the State by 30,000 and a good working majority in the legislature. Reports from the portion of the State where the greenback element was strongest show that the party has largely dissolved, many of its members returning to their old party loves. This in part accounts for the Republican gains. Then, too, in the large cities very many of the business men who had formerly voted with the Democrats refused to support Ewing, recognizing him as a representative of the inflation party. The number of votes lost to the Democrats in this way is very large. The vote has been very large and the election very quiet. There has been less money visible about the polls than for many years past, the Seitz law, passed last winter, to prevent the use of money in influencing voters, having evidently had a good effect. Quite a number of voters were arrested during the day, but were released on writs of habeas corpus.

THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST TAKEN FROM THE STATE PRESS.

A Yancey County Fighting Crowd---Mrs. Potts' Successful Tramp---Too Funny to Keep,

A BAD FAMILY.

Charlotte Observer, 14th.

Thomas Boone was sentenced a week ago at Burnesville, Yancey county, to be hanged on the 5th day of December, 1879. He was convicted a year ago for the murder of John Woodfin, a young man of this county. Edward Boone, the prisoner Thomas Boone, and John Woodfin went to a grog-shop two miles east of this town, and after getting drunk, an altercation followed and Woodfin was shot dead by Edward Boone, and Thomas was found guilty of being present, aiding and abetting. Edward Boone escaped, leaving Tom to "hold the bag." The case went to the Supreme Court last January term and was affirmed. The prisoner is quite a young man, not appearing to be more than twenty-one. He was beardless, and very pale from long confinement. On being asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, he replied in a firm voice: "I am not guilty of the crime for which I was convicted." There is considerable sympathy evinced for him, and a large petition, I hear, will be presented to the Governor for a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment for life.

Another Thomas Boone, a first cousin of the prisoner, is now in jail here, convicted at last Madison court for the murder of one Butner, at the very same grog-shop where the other homicide was committed, and just one year subsequent. His case is now in the Supreme Court on appeal.

The father of this last, Mr. Samuel Boone, got into a fight with his son-in-law, Hughes, a year ago, and Hughes bit Sam. Boone's thumb; mortification ensued and Boone's arm had to be amputated at the shoulder joint.

It is said here that seven of the Boone family have killed their man in this county in the last twenty years, and so far all have escaped hanging. They are said to be clever men when sober, but become maniacs under the influence of whisky.

SUCCESSFUL POTTS,

Charlotte Observer, 14th.

The walking widow Potts has been greatly ridiculed and made fun of in many ways, but there are a great many people who will be glad to know that she has arrived in Philadelphia, her destination, in safety and will agree with the Times that "as the country has gone wild over the people who walk, credit should not be withheld from the plucky little widow Potts, who came to town last night, fresh and smiling, without a lump or a bruise, after a tramp of twenty-six hundred miles, covering the distance from Philadelphia to New Orleans and back again. It was honest heel and toe walking, go as you please, up and down grade, in the open air and on soil and cross-ties, not on saw dust, that the widow did. She ought to be given the Astley belt, for she has done more to earn it than any of the big male loafers who are in the hippodrome business."

AN ERRING DAUGHTER.

Asheville Journal.

Nancy Mull, daughter of E. L. Mull, Esq., of Marshall, left that place on Friday afternoon last, in company with a stage driver, whose name is not known to her father. Mr. Mull desires to notify all persons not to harbor his daughter or assist her in any way, and any person or persons so offending will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

TOO FUNNY TO KEEP.

Correspondence Monroe Express.

NORWOOD, N. C., Sept. 17—Dear Sir: My papa takes your valuable paper, and in reading it I often see the sayings of little children published, and I thought I would tell you of something my little brother said. He was talking to me about God, and asked me what God made him for. I told him I didn't know, and he said, "I do." I asked him what for then, and he answered, "To pick up chips." I thought it was too funny to keep at home, so I write it to you. Respectfully,

J. D. BARNHARDT.

FIRE AT WHITEVILLE.

Wilmington Review, 14th.

From Colonel John W. Gordon, of the firm of J. W. Gordon & Brothers, insurance agents in this city, we learn that a fire occurred at Whiteville, Columbus county, on the W. C. & A. R. R. about 2 o'clock this morning, which consumed the store and stock of Mr. C. D. Baldwin, together with a building in the rear occupied as a bar room by Mr. Elkins. The store of Colonel T. S. Memory, next door to Mr. Baldwin, was at one time in great danger, but by the greatest efforts and exertions on the part of the citizens was saved from destruction. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to be the work of an incendiary, as the persons who broke open the store after the alarm was sounded discovered goods scattered all over the floor, as though the store had been first robbed and pillaged and afterwards set on fire.

ANOTHER FORGERY.

Winston Leader.

A man giving his name as J. A. Hill, from Randolph, brought a load of shingles to town on Wednesday last, which were purchased by Fogle Brothers. An order was given him on S. D. Franklin & Co., for $9.75. The figure nine was erased and twelve inserted instead. Sheriff Fogle went after him Wednesday night, but failed to find him.

FIVE THIEVES CAUGHT.

Salisbury News, 14th.

Last Saturday night at about 12 o'clock, four negroes, named Henry Holmes, Barney Whitehead, William Smith and Butler, made a raid on Swicegood's mill, better known as Shaver's, run by Mr. Windsor, about three miles from this city, and took therefrom about twelve bushels of wheat, ten bushels of which were taken to an old field near the residence of Smith, and two bushels were found in his house. The circumstances leading to the capture are as follows: Mr. West Sheppard was out opossum hunting, and met with Smith driving an ox team through the woods. He went to the wagon, untied one of the sacks in it, and took out a handful of wheat. Suspecting something wrong, he came to the city and reported his discovery.

Deputy Sheriff Smith went out, accompanied by Major Windsor and Mr. Peter Beard, and in their search for Smith, came upon a negro by the name of Tobe Brown, who has long been wanted by justice to answer the charge of meat-stealing and sundry other thefts. Tobias broke for the fields with the officers and attendants following; in attempting to get over a fence, it fell, and the thief was caught beneath the rails, and before he could extricate himself, was secured. He was brought to town and lodged in limbo, and the officers returned for Smith, who, by the way, is a cripple. He was found and secured, and peached on the other parties (giving names), saying they had hired him to haul the wheat for them. The officers went for the others, caught and put them in the "ten of diamonds," where they will be allowed the solacing pleasure of playing checkers with the nose until the next term of court.

SOME ENTERPRISING ENGLISHMEN TAKE A COACH RIDE.

"I'm Just Getting 'em Started"—"It's Dull Driving so Dog-gone Slow, and I'm Powerful Dry!"

Washington Capital.

Buffalo Bill tells a good story about a party of Englishmen traveling on the plains before the Pacific railroad was finished. They came rumbling into Laramie abusing the driver and the coach and the "blarsted country" generally, because, they averred, there was "no coaching or driving at all outside of England." Their contempt of all things American was shown in the most offensive manner to all the people standing around as they alighted. It happened that Bob Scott, the finest driver and most reckless dare-devil on the plains, was to take the coach to the next station, eight miles westward from Laramie, and as that gay John heard the remarks of the Britishers he slowly made up his mind to give them a specimen of purely American coaching. The stable boys led out six colts that looked as if they had never heard of a stage before; they reared and snorted, plunged and kicked until the noble Britons were quite delighted with the anticipation of a fine drive.

"Now, driver, you know, just give 'em their heads and let 'em go; don't you be afraid."

"Yes," says another encouragingly, "my good fellow, just go ahead."

Bob mounted the box slowly while a man held each horse; he gathered the reins and then said quickly: "Let 'em go." And they did; and the colts plunged and reared, but Bob's iron grasp held them in. With the aid of the California brakes he held them down to a walk for three miles, while the passengers blasphemed at him for a "cad" and a sneak. At the end of that three miles they got to the top of a hill, and one Briton poked his head out of the window and began to say something, but as he did a wild unearthly yell waked that vicinity, and at the same time Bob threw all six lines down. The coach seemed to lift from the ground, and these six colts started at the very best speed they could make. Another yell from Bob and they seemed to increase it; then to help matters he drew his revolver and began firing over the horses' heads.

"Great God," cried the Britons, "we've gotten into the hands of a blarsted lunatic."

"Stop, stop," they shouted; but the mad team and crazy driver tore on faster and faster, while the stage went bouncing over the rocky road in a way that threatened to pound the passengers to pieces. Bob craned his neck over and yelled into the window:

"Gents, I'm just getting 'em started; they'll do better after awhile." And he took out the lamps and hurled them at the leaders with a wild Comanche war whoop.

The affrighted passengers presently saw the station in full view; the question was how was that team to be stopped. They gave themselves up for gone, and hung on despairingly to the seats. It seems that the horses were accustomed to go right into the stables, coach and all, and up they came to the open door at full speed. There was a yell from the assembled stable attendants and tavern loafers, then a frightful crash as the whole top of the coach went off, throwing three Britons out and breaking two arms and a leg, besides other slighter accidents. Bob came out of the stable smiling, picked up an Englishman and says:

"Never mind, sir, we'll have a real nice drive to the next station. I was obliged to take 'em along slowly over that there bad road. Boys, put in the other team in a fresh coach and give me a couple of cock-tails. It's dull driving so dog-gone slow, and I'm powerful dry."

Those Englishmen waited and sent for a doctor, but they did not put down anything in their note books about American driving.

The Berger Family.

The Berger Family under Templeton's management to-morrow night. Here is what an exchange says of them:

The Berger Family and Sol Smith Russell held a large audience at the Opera House spell-bound last night, with delight and wonder. We cannot convey to those who were not present an adequate idea of the richness of the entertainment. The music by the Berger Family was exceedingly fine. The young ladies taking part in the performance show to the world what can be done by the gentler sex in the world of music. No instrument is too difficult for them to perform upon. Their parlor concert is a magnificent and brilliant affair, and no words of praise from us could be too extravagant to portray the really splendid picture presented by their grouping in the parlor entertainment.

The charming Miss Kemlo sang with great effect last night, and was encored to the echo.

Sol Smith Russell, the incomparable Sol, comes in among the harmonies of music, and changes the feelings of the audience from a sympathy with sweet sounds to a charming sense of hilarity at his artistic touches and inimitable representations of the droll side of human nature, and there is no resisting his humor.

The whole performance is of the highest character, and as they give another entertainment to-night, we urge all lovers of really good and fine music to attend.

A Theater Accident.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 15.—John M. Nelson, a medical student, who, while witnessing a performance at the Front street Theater last night, was shot in the forehead with a Minnie ball during a discharge of musketry on the stage. He died this morning.

From Havana.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—The Inspector of the National Board of Health at Havana, Dr. D. M. Burgess, reports to the Board, October 8th that the Spanish local board of health at Havana is issuing clean bills of health to vessels sailing from there, notwithstanding the fact that there was at that time seventy-five cases of yellow fever in the city.

Railroad Commissioners Appointed.

ATLANTA,, Oct. 15.—Ex-Governor James M. Smith, Campbell Wallace and Samuel Barnett were appointed railroad commissioners to-day. The legislature adjourned to-night.

"You can't come it," said a customer to a druggist who endeavored to palm off his own mixture when Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup was asked for, and Bull's he got. Price 25 cents a bottle.

THE THIRD DAY.

THE TRADES' PROCESSION—THE CITY WELL-FILLED.

An Old Feature Revived—The Street Display—Every Man to His Trade—The Firemen.

Yesterday morning at 10:30 the procession took up its line of march for the Fair grounds. Fayetteville street was thronged with spectators; Capitol Square was packed. The day was bright and lovely, and a right royal time was had. The number of people in attendance compares favorably with previous years. All through the street a busy scene was presented. Every business man was on the alert. "Indians" that had never reached as far west as the "Llano Estacado" were distributing dodgers recommending the wares of this or that house; stalwart countrymen were busy scanning them, with now and then an eye lifted to wait for the promised cavalcade, while their wives, or daughters, or sweethearts were looking at the dainty chromo cards of the NEWS.

And adown the street came up the blare of the music, and the procession, headed by Thompson's Silver Cornet Band, commenced its movement. Following were carriages containing His Excellency Governor Jarvis, Colonel T. M. Holt, President of the Association, and and other officials our city dignitaries, with His Honor Mayor Manly at the head, and then—as may be imagined. The Firemen led. Rescue Steamer, drawn by horses, made brave with polishing and wreaths, the tender in advance with forty men on the ropes, W. J. Weir, Foreman; Victor Engine, drawn by horses, the hose tender in advance with fifty men; the Chemical and the truck, with their full complement, all under the command of Chief Engineer Joseph H. Green.

THE RALEIGH LIGHT ARTILERY, with a full complement of men—ready to do and die—appeared next, with their twelve pounders, under command of Captain J. Amos Harris.

Then Ream's Durham Tobacco Warehouse was represented by a large wagon laden with the bright "yellow leaf," and upon the traveling platform a mimic sale was going on, and as the fictitious bids were put in the auctioneer was greeted with cheers.

And then the old reliable builder and contractor, Jacob S. Allen, brought up his six-horse wagon with the results of his handiwork, from Gothic oriel moldings to bedroom sets, displayed in good taste, and his workmen reigning supreme by the fruit of their labors.

Edwards, Broughton & Company, with a miniature printing office,

"That was to be to the larger plan,
What the child is to the man," with racks and cases and compositors swaying with the wagon. Unsteady it might be to the vision, but the house is too solid to be shaken by every wave that sweeps along.

Ellington, Royster & Company with a miniature cottage on wheels with all the accessories that go to make a cottage neat, and in the receiving room was a little lady doing the honors of a cottage home. This wagon attracted much attention.

C. B. Fairchild's nursery business was displayed by various fruit trees, interspersed with flowering plants and vines.

Messrs. Kingsley & Ashley, contractors and builders, had a wagon with a good showing of their business. Our builders were out in all their strength.

Wilson's Raleigh Nursery was represented. Compliments are unnecessary.

And then was the wagon of R. N. Mitchell. Mounted on skids was a large boiler in process of construction, and as the inevitable clatter and banging of the heavy hammers went up, cheers were freely given to the hard-working mechanics.

Messrs. Blackwell & Company, of Durham, intended to have a wagon in the procession but a large business yesterday precluded it. The explanation will be found in our local columns.

FLORAL HALL—FRUIT.

As usual, the display of fruit is unsurpassed. No State in the Union can compete with North Carolina in the production of apples. Whenever and wherever a contest has been made the Old North State has brought off the prize, as attested by the numerous prizes borne off by the champion fruit grower of the world, Natt Atkinson, of Buncombe, who has on exhibition a magnificent display of fruits, consisting of over one hundred varieties of apples, peaches, pears, etc., and also a fine lot of fruit trees.

J. Van Lindley, of Guilford, has over fifty varieties on exhibition, which partly represent the nurseries of Guilford, the champion fruit growing county of the State. These nurseries of Guilford raise every variety of fruit trees, adapted to the climate and soil of the Southern States.

Dr. G. K. Faust, of Alamance, has a magnificent display of over three hundred varieties of apples, peaches, quinces, pears, apricots, nectarines, grapes, etc., and has also a fine lot of trees on exhibition.

Owen Lindley and J. W. Perry represent the Chatham nurseries and show three hundred varieties of fruits of all kinds—apples, peaches, pears, grapes, figs, oranges, lemons, and a fine lot of fruit trees.

THE RACES.

The first race came off at 1:30. Trotting race, one mile and repeat. Henry Clay, Almont Mambrino, Maud McDonald and Woodburn Hambletonian entered. Henry Clay won both heats; the others coming in, in the order above named. Time, 1st heat, 2.48½; 2d heat, 2.52¼.

The second race came off on time. This was a running race, Swannanoa and Annie G. were entered. Swannanoa won both heats and the race.

The third race was a trotting race, one mile and repeat, best two in three. Blue Wing, Henry Ward Beecher and School Girl entered. Blue Wing won.

The fourth race, one mile and repeat, trotting, Henry Clay, Almont Mambrino, Maud McDonald and Woodburn Hamiltonian entered. Both heats won by Henry Clay. Time 2.48½ and 2.52¼.

The fifth race was a running match. Swannanoa and Annie G. entering. Swannanoa won both heats.

The last race was a half mile running dash between Pill Box, Cad, Nanny Broadnax, George Bennett and Austral. Pill Box won.

GLASS BALL SHOOTING TO-DAY.

For a double barrel breach loading shot gun valued at $100. A Winchester repeating rifle $28. Shooting to begin at 11 A. M.

INSANE ASYLUM DISPLAY OF VEGETABLES.

By far the finest display of vegetables, as to variety, size and get up, on the grounds, is that exhibited by Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Asylum. This display would do credit to any exhibition anywhere.

A FINE DISPLAY OF COFFEE.

The NEWS notices the display of enterprise coffee, manufactured by Parkley & Hasson, "The Coffee Roasters," Baltimore. This coffee is roasted in air-tight cylinders which retains the strength and flavor that is lost by housekeepers when they do their own roasting. Lovers of good coffee should use this brand.

GLASS BALL SHOOTING.

Yesterday, fourteen entries, score of three highest.

J. D. Pullen broke 13 balls, shot 18.
C. T. Wormly broke 12 balls, shot 18.
John Creech broke 12 balls, shot 18.

There were fourteen contestants, Mr. Pullen being victorious, winning the breach loading shot gun.

Second match, prize, hunting suit. Nine entries. Mr. Wormly, of Richmond, broke nine balls, winning the suit. Mr. Pullen broke seven. Mr. Creech, of Raleigh, five and Mr. Pemberton, of Fayetteville, six.

PROGRAMME TO-DAY.

At 11 A. M.—Parade of the Raleigh Light Infantry, and visit of the Durham Light Infantry.

At 11:30.—The Bingham Cadets will execute their Skirmish Drill.

At 12 M.—Teams of the N. C. State Guard will report at the Judges' Stand to General B. C. Manly for Target Practice for the Champion Flag.

At 12 M., and throughout the day thereafter—the Great Sale of Articles from the north side of the Eastern wing of the General Exhibition Building. See explanatory note below.

The Comic Opera.

Miss Adah Richmond's troupe last night enacted H. M. S. Pinafore for the first time in this city. Three companies have given this opera at different times during the last four or five months, and its undying popularity was evinced again last night by a large auditorium. We came with great expectations and were not disappointed. Much has been said about Pinafore and our ears have at times been ringing with it. We will therefore not particularly enlarge in this instance, but simply say that it was capital thoroughout. Of course Miss Richmond, as usual, was inimitable in the character of Josephine. Mr. Armand delighted his hearers by his exquisite voice. Mr. Sturges was as good a Dick Deadeye as we ever saw. Mr. Barnes gave a capital rendering of his solo in the second act. Mr. Vincent and Mr. Kent both were worthy representatives of their respective characters. The choruses were very fine and sung with great precision. Much of the success of the whole we accredit to the fact that the musical director, Mr. Carl Von Schiller, was the first to bring out Pinafore in New York, a fact that is not generally known. Mr. Schiller is a thorough musician and an experienced operatic conductor, he deserves much credit for his untiring energy and the marked ability with which he conducts the whole; it must be remembered that the success of an opera depends in a great measure upon an efficient leader. We learn the Chimes of Normandy will be repeated to-morrow night. We advise all lovers of good music to go.

The Agricultural Society.

The North Carolina Agricultural Society met at the hall of the House of Representatives on Wednesday evening, October 15th, 1879, President Thomas M. Holt in the chair, and C. B. Denson, Secretary. The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

On account of Prof. Redd, whose address was the special order, on motion of Captain J. R. Thigpen, Dr. A. R. LeDoux, of the North Carolina Experiment Station, was invited to address the society, and he proceeded to state the difficulty of fixing a season for the analysis of fertilizers sufficient for the purchases of the current season. He also argued that the price of fertilizers was unchanged since the establishment of the Station, and urged on the farmers present to send up for examination samples of seeds before sowing.

Colonel Johnson, of Mecklenburg county, was called upon and proceeded to relate instances of improvement in agriculture, which had come under his observation throughout the State.

Captain S. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county, explained the working of the fence law in that county, and he gave an instructive and interesting account of the same in favor of the operations of the law.

In accordance with previous invitation, Captain G. Rufus Amis of Granville, read a full and detailed essay upon the cultivation of curing bright yellow tobacco.

Colonel J. M. Heck moved a vote of thanks for the valuable essay of Mr. Amis, and further that the essay be published.

Colonel L. L. Polk moved to amend, by requesting the press of the State to copy the essay of Mr. Amis. Colonel Polk informed the society that fine, light tobaccos were upon exhibition now at the Fair grounds from Craven county from the east, and Madison in the west, and almost every county between.

The motion as amended was passed.

Colonel J. M. Heck moved that the report of the committee on the fence law, who visited Mecklenburg county at the request of the society, be read to-morrow night. Adopted.

On motion, the hour of meeting was fixed at 7:30 P. M.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

C. B. DENSON, Secretary.

THE WOBBLING WIDOW.

TWENTY-SIX HUNDRED MILES DOWN IN RESOLUTION.

Mrs. Mattie Potts Makes a Successful End of Her Long Tramp---North Carolina Pluck.

Philadelphia Times, 11th.

At 8 o'clock last evening a sunburned little woman, about five feet nothing in height, clad in what had probably once been a blue flannel dress, trimmed with white, twenty-five cents' worth of straw hat, and swinging in one hand a short cane, to the handle of which was tied a small bouquet, turned the corner of Eighth and Chestnut streets and with a quick, noiseless step soon announced her presence in the reporter's room at the Times office. "There," she said, with a snap of her blue eyes and a twirl of her staff, "here I am, Mrs. Martha Potts, the 'Widow Potts,' and that completes two thousand six hundred miles I've walked for a wager of $5,000."

Her peculiar accent bore out her assertion that she was a native of North Carolina. She resumed: "I lived in New York nine years. I never did any walking, except a few exhibitions over there, until I entered in the six days' tramp of the female walkers around in the International Pool Room. I came in so far behind that you couldn't have found me if you had hunted a week with a lantern. A number of gentlemen there, whose names I don't care to mention, put up $5,000, which they agreed to give to me if I should walk to New Orleans and back in a certain time. I'm back, and I expect to get my cash. The distance is two thousand six hundred miles. I started from Philadelphia May 13th, and went down to Baltimore and Washington, and so on, by regular roads, until I reached Manassas Junction. Then I took to the railroad bed and walked every step of the way, through Lynchburg and Danville, Virginia; Salisbury and Charlotte, North Carolina; Atlanta, Georgia; Montgomery and Mobile, Alabama, to New Orleans, where I arrived on July 20th.

I experienced the kindest treatment all along the line; was never molested or insulted, and had rousing receptions at Atlanta by three thousand people; at Mobile and Montgomery by bands, and by five thousand persons at New Orleans, where I also had a dinner from the press and officials just before I started on the back track on July 25th. I had nobody to accompany me either way beyond the folks who came out to meet me near the cities, but I understand there were people at certain points watching to see that I walked the square thing. My whole expenses weren't over $25. I lost fourteen days altogether by stoppages, and was sick three days. Everybody treated me kindly, especially in Georgia and Louisiana. My greatest day's walk was thirty-six miles, on the Piedmont Air-Line, in Georgia, and my average twenty-one miles. I've worn out two pairs of shoes and have my third on now. There were easier roads south than between here and Baltimore, where they are ballasted with stone. South the sand and clay ballasting is used. Coming back I switched off from Danville to Fredericksburg and Richmond. I made twenty-eight miles to-day, leaving Wilmington this morning at nine and walking to Gray's Ferry, where I took a street car. I ain't a bit tired and could go it over again. I think I could beat one hundred and ten miles in twenty-four hours. I want to walk twenty-four, seventy-two or one hundred and forty-four hours, I started out to be champion, and I hear there was half a million in bets on the result. I'll be champion or die in the attempt. I expect to get my money in a few days. I'm going to stop at the Allegheny House, around in Market street."

The widow smacked on her straw hat, picked up her cane and skipped cheerily away.

The Oratorio of Daniel.

The Salisbury street Baptist church was well filled last night with a musical-loving audience to hear the rendition of the grand oratorio of Daniel by the choir of the church, assisted by other prominent vocalists of the city.

The church is commodious and its inside style of architecture is pleasing to the eye. The grand twenty-two stop organ, built immediately over the pulpit, is notoriously a magnificent instrument in its quality of tone, but in ornamentation and finish it exceeds anything in the State.

At 7:30 o'clock Professor F. A. Bohlman assumed his position at the banks and began his "Organ Recitation," which was much appreciated as was evident from the quiet and undisturbed attention on the part of the audience. Professor Bohman is a fine instrumentalist and has sustained well his high reputation whenever he has appeared before a Raleigh audience. At the conclusion of the organ recitation and after a short intermission the grand chorus of eighteen carefully trained vocalists led by Mrs. W. W. Vass, the highly accomplished and skilled organ accompanyist, came forward from either side of the organ and took a position in front.

The opening chorus was well rendered and the audience showed marked interest and keen appreciation as it proceeded.

The quartette, "O, Zion! City of our God," was sweetly sung and the solo (Daniel) "Blessed be the Name" was simply beautiful. The music was admirably suited to Major Hardin's rich voice and it was sung with fine expression and effect. "Azariah's sister" (Miss Hunter) was much complimented after singing so well in her solo, duet and trio.

The King, (Mr. W. H. Dodd) who is endowed with a deep toned basso, gave full meaning to his solos and duets throughout the whole programme.

The "Triumphal chorus of Persians" is a grand piece of choral music and was well interpreted.

Daniel again appeared in the solo "Heed the Voice of My Cry," and sang with such impressement, that many pronounced it the finest piece of the evening; but this was before

DAILY NEWS

THESSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THESE Republicans are patriots and statesmen on the grab principle—Raleigh (N. C.) News.

History does not represent that any Republicans were in Van Buren's or Buchanan's administration, and those two can discount all the other administrations of this country on the "grab" principle.—Washington Republican.

But those officials did not have a Babcock or a lot of whisky ring officials in their train, or the "grab" principle would have been more faithfully carried out. But it appears to us that the Republican is not dealing justly by us. The above sentence was taken from an article explaining the Indian "steal," and if it had published the article in full its readers would not have to go as far back as its cited cases to comprehend the situation.

THE coroner's jury which investigated the causes of the recent falling of the grand stand on the Fair grounds at Adrian, Mich., by which fifteen persons were killed and two hundred injured more or less severely, have returned a verdict fixing the responsibility of the affair on the owner of the grounds, the architect who planned and the builders who constructed the stand. The charge against the former is that he employed an incompetent architect and builders, and that he neglected to assure himself of the safety of the building before permitting its use by the public. The architect who designed the building and prepared the working plans is held equally guilty with the constructors for negligence in not putting or causing to be put in adequate supporters to the floor timbers. The jury recommended that all the persons implicated be held to answer criminal charges, and they have accordingly been arrested on the charge of manslaughter, and at last accounts were in jail. This is a hopeful sign. Now let the grand and petit juries of the county in which the disaster occurred do their duty as well as the coroner's jury did theirs, and we shall be exempt from Fair ground casualties of that class for some time to come.

MISS ROSE MEEKER, daughter of the Indian agent at White River, killed during the recent outbreak, writes to the press a most pitiful letter. Allowing for the natural feeling common to the loss of a parent, still we must say that her letter is in decidedly bad taste. For instance:

I, as the eldest daughter of the martyred agent Meeker, of the White River agency, wish to express my feelings in a limited way about this horrible massacre. Had there been half as much expedition and force put in operation from the time of my father's calling for troops until the battle as there has been since the battle this horrible massacre would never have occurred. The government with its slow movements has let my father be murdered when it could have been prevented.

If Agent Meeker had attended strictly to his business—had he let the Utes' pastures alone instead of trying to convert it into a corn field to further swindle the Nation's (with a big N) wards, he probably would have been alive to-day. She rightly blames the Government; but the real fault is not within the lines of her letter. Had the Government acted up to its obligations—had they given the tribes fair treatment, the Indian massacre would not have occurred.

OUR NAVAL RECRUITS.

The boys on the school ship enlisted under a recent act of Congress do not seem fully satisfied with the situation. The majority seem to have enlisted under a misapprehension. The following from the officer in charge gives a fair exposition of the situation:

"Well, he'll have to get used to them," said the officer. "They're having an easy time of it here, but let them get to sea and then they may have something to talk about. Many of them enlisted under a false impression, thinking they would be made naval officers in a few months. The fact is, none of them can rise to any such position without passing through the Naval Academy. You know they were enlisted under the law passed at the last Congress authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to provide a school of seamanship for seven hundred and fifty boys. The object of the law is to provide American seamen for American merchant-men, three-fourths of which are now manned by foreigners. The full quota has not yet been obtained."

THE OHIO ELECTION.

By our late returns Ohio has gone about one thousand four hundred Republican majority on the Gubernatorial ticket, the Legislature still being in doubt. This is a surprise to all parties, the Republicans having claimed it by thirty thousand majority, and the best-posted Democrats by one thousand five hundred majority.

Let us get to the root of this business. On New York depends the election, Ohio being just merely a stepgain. If Ohio was not strong enough Republican to give Mr. Foster thirty thousand majority, he was then not able to carry the State proper.

Ohio was calculated to bolster up New York for a Republican majority; but fourteen hundred is not enough. The Republican prestige is gone. The small majority will not carry weight.

This was a question of party policy. General Ewing was a gallant soldier of the war. He had made his name like many another gallant soldier.

The Republicans have told us time and again that they were fighting the solid South.

But who are these men that are fighting the solid South? In Ohio the Democratic ticket put on two stout Union soldiers, General Ewing and General Rice, the last named having lost a leg. Who were the Republican candidates? Mr. Charles Foster, who never unsheathed a sword for the good of his country, and then in order to make out the ticket and to buy the soldier vote they put on the tail of the ticket a good German soldier.

The scheme was plain on the face of it. They wanted to take the great State of Ohio, and without working for principle at all they worked it for prejudice. And in order to bring in the soldier element—and there were many gallant men from that State—they added to the ticket General Hickenlooper. Mr. Foster stayed most devotedly at home during the war. Perhaps he was right; for everybody has a right to keep his carcase out of danger. But if our memory serves us rightly, it used to be the principle that every man fought for principle.

And now comes the question: Are we fighting for spoils?

MRS. FROMM'S TINY BOY.

Still a Mite—Christened and Doing Well Except in Matter of Growth.

New York Sun, 14t...

Among the calls made by a reporter for the Sun yesterday was one on Frank George Fromm. He lives at 438 West Fifty-fourth street, and he was found asleep on a pillow, which had been placed on a chair near the kitchen stove. He had not increased perceptibly in weight or size since his birth, three weeks ago. At that time he tipped the scales at eleven ounces and three quarters, was five inches long and two and a half across his chest. The object of the reporter's call was to attend the christening, but he was disappointed, for the ceremony was performed a week ago. Fearing that some misfortune might befall the baby, his parents took him to the Lutheran church in Forty-second street, where a few drops of lukewarm water were placed on his tiny head by the officiating clergyman. His godfather gave him a plain gold ring that could not be slipped upon a lead pencil, but fits easily upon the middle finger of his left hand. His visitors are numerous. Curious mothers, some of whom come long distances, are in the majority; but physicians and others, actuated by more practical motives, have been in fair proportion. The boy continues vigorous, eating heartily and sleeping long and soundly. He does not make much noise, being what mothers call a "good baby." Hopes are entertained that he will develop into a great man in a small way, though his mother says she would not be disappointed if he should grow to ordinary size. His sister, a little over two years old, and the only survivor of seven other children that preceded him in the Fromm family, weighed nearly twelve pounds at birth.

Bogus Certificates.

It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Exchange. See another column.

Another victim of Kerosene. Last night while Miss Jenny Robinson, of this city, was trying to light the fire with kerosene, the usual consequences followed. A prompt application of Henry's Carbolic Salve relieved the pain, and her recovery is now assured. Beware of counterfeits.

The Unique Perfumes of Dr. Price are fast superseding all others. Their fresh, flowery fragrance is admired by all who use them. For an evening party his Meadow Flowers is captivating; while for the parlor, church or concert, his Pet Rose is the most delightful odor.

VEGETINE.

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

SUFFERED 25 YEARS.

Piles, Rheumatism.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; tryhing every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

The most Healing, Soothing and Refreshing External Application in the World

It rapidly heals Ulcers, Old Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Itching Piles and other itching affections that have been the torture of a lifetime, thus affording unspeakable gratification to thousands. Burns, Scalds, Wounds and Foster; all Itching and Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and all Affections of the scalp, including Loss of Hair. Nothing like it has ever been known to the most intelligent physicians. It has swept a host of poisonous remedies out of existence. It is revolutionary in its composition and mode of treatment and succeeds in curing every external affection. At every stage it is ably assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, which is a part of itself medicinally and at the same time the most delightfully fragrant and refreshing Toilet, Bath, and Nursery Soap in existence.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a powerful purifying agent and liver stimulant, should be taken to neutralize and resolve away blood poisons, caused by the virus of scrofula, cancer, canker, malarial or contagious diseases, which maintain and foster diseases, which maintain and foster diseases of the skin and scalp.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have received from the use of your CUTICURA.

For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum,

For months I would be helpless,—my very life a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and lo! it was as a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some one similarly afflicted, and if so I would earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,
A. D. BAKER, Ticket Agent G. S. R. R.

Tetter or Salt Rheum

On the hands cured. A greatful letter.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen:—Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard-earned dollar. I was given a trial of your CUTICURA, AT ONCE. God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good like that.

You may put this in the paper and welcome, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

Yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH BURLEY.
LITTLETON, N. H., May 30, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

——Major J. W. Wilson, Major John D. Whitford, among other prominent personages were in the city yesterday.

——The Industrial procession yesterday attracted even as though the circus had suddenly dropped down in our midst.

——The number of arrivals at the National Hotel and Yarboro House, so far, has been greater than at any previous Fair.

——Mr. A. M. McPheeters, who has been confined to his bed with intermittent fever for some days, is again able to be out.

——The three national banks of the city closed by mutual consent to-day in order that the officers and clerks may attend the Fair free from care.

Beginning at the intersection of Fayetteville and Martin streets it closed at the Fair grounds. Truth is, it was an exotic from Durham, transplanted for a brief term by Reams, the enterprising leaf tobacco man of that place.

The Templetons Last Night.

Tucker Hall was crowded last night to witness "Pinafore" as rendered by this old favorite company. The play was admirably rendered we may say, in every particular, Mrs. Templeton (Alice Vane) certainly has the "boss" conception of the character she so well represents (Josephine). Miss Fay Templeton, as Ralph Rackstraw, is certainly just excellent, as was attested by the almost uproarious applause she so frequently received and the sweet bouquets presented her. Our "Tarheel," Mr. Buckley, is mighty hard to be equaled. Mr. Kendall, Captain Corcoran, is just one of the best and finest looking Captains conceivable. Mr. K. has certainly made a "hit" with this people. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller certainly take that hornpipe off to perfection; they are just splendid in almost any role they undertake. Mr. Crane is just Dick Deadeye himself. Little Lee certainly attracted considerable attention. To-night they render East Lynne. If there is anything that Alice Vane excels in more than her admirable conceptions of other characters it is her part as the governess, in this play. Give them a big house to-night.

W. C. & A. B. Stronach are to-day receiving a lot of the justly celebrated "Enterprise" brand of roasted coffee, retail price twenty-five cents per pound, and a liberal margin to dealers. Mr. Cobb, of Barkley & Hasson, the roaster of their brand, will, at the Fair grounds to-day, distribute three thousand samples. Try it.

Talbott & Sons,

of Shokor Machine Works, Richmond, Virginia, have two magnificent steam agricultural engines on exhibition at the Fair grounds. This firm is too well known throughout the South to require praise at our hands. Their engines are extensively used all over North Carolina, and give entire satisfaction. They always bear off premiums at the State Fairs in the South. Their patent spark arrester is a great improvement, and where used, from the safety given from fire, insurance companies carry the risk at greatly reduced rates.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics, Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney. LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B F. Woodward P. E., Na. Conf. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. In Raleigh, by
